

Turmoil

for solo trombone

(Bass clef and treble clef copies)

Anthony Skilbeck

"Turmoil" has seven sections which are unequal in length (the end of each one being marked by a double bar line) and these are bound together by a motif created by the first two notes.

Moods signified by the Italian words risoluto, impetuoso, teneramente e lontano, dolente, agitato and disperatamente are explored.

In bar eight, the octave above Db is given in brackets, as an alternative for players without an F valve.
